Let's reschedule. Luckily the storm seems to be underperforming so we may actually have an open office Tuesday.

Thanks and stay dry in Seattle

Boy, you guys are really getting hit this year - pouring rain here.... Are you and Linda teleworking such that we can go forward with a noon pacific FMC call or do you want us to reschedule?

Let me know, we can go either way.

Beth

This message applies to March 3, 2014.

FEDERAL OFFICES in the Washington, DC, area are CLOSED. Emergency and telework-ready employees required to work must follow their agency's policies, including written telework agreements.

Non-emergency employees (including employees on pre-approved paid leave) will be granted excused absence (administrative leave) for the number of hours they were scheduled to work unless they are:

- * required to telework,
- * on official travel outside of the Washington, DC, area,
- * on leave without pay, or
- * on an alternative work schedule (AWS) day off.

Telework-Ready Employees who are scheduled to perform telework on the effective day of the announcement or who are required to perform telework on a day when Federal offices are closed must telework the entire workday or request leave, or a combination of both, in accordance with their agency's policies and procedures, subject to any applicable collective bargaining requirements.

Emergency Employees are expected to report to their worksite unless otherwise directed by their agencies.
